

Guidelines for Contributors:

Editorial policy: The Tolstoy Studies Journal is a refereed journal and welcomes contributions on any topic relevant to Tolstoy scholarship. In addition to articles, the Journal publishes review articles, roundtable discussions, news and events, notices of work in progress, special reports, and book reviews. Book reviews will normally be invited, but unsolicited reviews may be considered. In the interest of attracting the widest readership possible, the Journal publishes manuscripts in English, with Cyrillic text where necessary.

Submissions: Manuscripts should be sent in triplicate to:
Professor Donna Tussing Orwin, Editor, Tolstoy Studies Journal
c/o Centre for Russian and East European Studies
University of Toronto
130 St. George Street, Suite 14335
Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A5 Canada

Receipt of the manuscript will be acknowledged, and the author informed as soon as possible whether or not the manuscript has been accepted. The usual deadline for submission is June 1. Special issues may have special deadlines which will be announced in advance.

Style: The manuscript must follow the format outlined in the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers. Works cited, endnotes, paragraphing, punctuation, etc. should conform to MLA rules. All titles and emphasis should be indicated by italics rather than underlining.

Transliteration: Russian and other Slavic languages should be transliterated according to the Library of Congress system of transliteration. Russian surnames which have commonly been transliterated differently in English, e.g., Tolstoy, Tschalkovsky, should be given their standardized form.

Quotations: For technical and editorial reasons the Journal discourages quotations in Russian unless they are absolutely necessary to advance the author's argument. When quotations are given in Cyrillic, English translations must be provided. Direct quotations longer than four manuscript lines should be set off from the body of the text by indenting five spaces from the left margin and omitting quotation marks.

Computer generated copy: Authors of submissions accepted for publication will be required to submit final text in IBM-PC compatible format (Word or WordPerfect for Windows, high density diskettes only). Diskettes must be labeled with the name of the file and the exact format used.
